Deprecation Policy

When a specific browser or browser version are to be no longer supported, Workday will communicate the deprecation along with an end-of-life date of the browser or browser version through our Workday Community. Deprecated browsers and browser versions will continue to work until the “end-of-life” status is reached.

End-of-Life

When a specific browser or browser version reaches the end of its deprecation period and is no longer supported, the “end-of-life” status is reached. Advanced end-of-life notice through our Workday Community will be given 18 months before support ends for a browser or major browser version, and 6 months before support ends for a minor browser version.
